ABOUT RIALTO SCHOOL OF THE ARTS:

The Rialto Square Theatre began its school of the arts programs to make available fine art training to children in the greater Will County area. Participating children will benefit through professional instruction, an increase in natural creative talents, building of self-esteem and social interaction.

ABOUT EMERALD CITY THEATRE

Emerald City Theatre, recognized for its fantastic children's theatre classes and performances on Chicago's north side, are at be at the Rialto Square Theatre this summer with theatre camps for all ages. All of the camps will incorporate the elements that have made Emerald City Theatre School summer camp programs a huge "sell out" success. Students use the tools of their bodies, voices, and creativity to explore communication, ensemble building, and raise confidence. Through customized, thematic theatre games, students will have the opportunity to learn more about themselves and fellow campers in a manner that encourages creative exploration and active choices.
